

TREASURES TALKS & EVENTS

Don Silvestro dei Gherarducci (1339–1399)
The Annunciation, in a large initial R—from the Gradual of Santa Maria degli Angeli, Florence c.1375, Tuscan school
By permission of The British Library, London

Spotlight Talk: From Beethoven to Mozart
Wednesday 16 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

This talk focuses on items in the Treasures from the World's Great Libraries exhibition relating to some of the great composers, including manuscripts by Beethoven and Mozart.

Focus Talk: The Canterbury Tales
with Professor Ralph Elliott

Friday 18 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

Chaucer's The Canterbury Tales will come to life in this talk, focusing on one of the earliest printed books.

Spotlight Talk: Ancient China and Oracle Bones
with Ken Gardiner

Wednesday 23 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

As part of the Treasures exhibition program, Ken Gardiner will discuss the inscribed oracle bones from the National Library of China.

Focus Talk: Australia or Terra Australis
with Tim Fisher

Friday 25 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

Tim Fisher, exhibition curator at the National Library of Australia, will talk about Matthew Flinders, William Westall and Edward Koiki Mabo, all featured in Treasures from the World's Great Libraries.

Spotlight Talk: Cook's Endeavour Journal
with Graeme Powell

Wednesday 30 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

View Cook's Endeavour journal, and hear about the people and the journey behind this historical record.

Treasures from the World's Great Libraries
Film Series

In Wake of the Bounty (1933)

Thursday 31 January, 6 pm, Theatre, Free, 67 mins.

This film, Charles Chauvel's first 'talkie', contains rare documentary footage of Pitcairn Island.

It was also the first film appearance of Errol Flynn.

JANUARY 2002

Spotlight Talk: The Gutenberg Bible

Wednesday 9 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

Visit the Treasures from the World's Great Libraries exhibition and come to this talk to hear more about the Gutenberg Bible, on loan from the John Rylands University Library in Manchester.

Musical Treasures: A Celebration of Glenn Gould

Thursday 10 January, 5.30 pm

Foyer, Free

Bookings recommended: (02) 6262 1122 (BH)

This concert is presented by the Australian Music Camp 2002 in association with Treasures from the World's Great Libraries.

Focus Talk: Curator's Favourites

with Margaret Dent

Friday 11 January, 12.30 pm

Theatre, Free

Join Margaret Dent, curator, for a talk about her favourite pieces in the Treasures from the World's Great Libraries exhibition.

TREASURES

FROM THE WORLD'S GREAT LIBRARIES

Album of Beijing Opera Characters from the Shengping Bureau, 1844 ink, colour, white pigment, gold on silk, 33.3 x 23.9 cm, Courtesy of National Library of China, Beijing

Over 150 treasures that have shaped our world

7 December 2001 – 24 February 2002

National Library of Australia

Canberra

From 9am Daily Except Christmas Day, Free Admission

Tel: (02) 6262 1111, www.nla.gov.au, Novotel Canberra (02) 6245 5000 or Canberra Getaways 1800 100 660

THE AUSTRALIAN

ART INDEMNITY
AUSTRALIA
Cultural heritage from the world to you

Exhibition organised and managed by the National Library of Australia in association with Art Exhibitions Australia