SINGLES. As 2007 began, the ARIA Singles Chart was evolving, with growing digital sales challenging physical product as the favoured delivery medium among Australia's Singles consumers. By year end, digital sales were clearly the preferred form of Singles purchase, a factor reflected in the November rule change that made digital only releases eligible to chart. The digital era has caused another fundamental change to the Singles Chart – titles are always available and as such are having appreciably longer chart lives. To illustrate this, in the twenty years from 1987 up to the start of 2007 only six singles had remained in the ARIA Top 100 for 50 weeks or more, yet during 2007 no less than twenty titles passed that mark including two (I Love It by Sneaky Sound System and Sexyback by Justin Timberlake) which passed the late 1990s record of 69 weeks set by Second Solution / Prisoner Of Society by The Living End. One consequence of this lengthening of average chart occupation is that fewer titles are reaching the chart. During 2007 a total of 412 singles appeared in the Top 100 (down from 510 in 2006) with 263 of them reaching the Top 50 and 74 landing in the Top 10. The composition of the year-end Top 100 is also interesting, with the local content steady on 25%, North America are up a couple of percent to 65% while the UK contribution of 5% is just half the European representation of 10%.

No.1 BIG GIRLS DON'T CRY - Fergie. The biggest selling single in Australia during 2007 entered the charts at No.1 in mid July and remained in the Top 40 through to the end of the year. The double platinum release spent nine weeks in the No.1 position, two more than its nearest rival during the year. It is one of only four Singles so far this decade to have lasted for nine weeks or more at the top of the ARIA Singles Charts. This was the best performed of six singles that the Black Eyed Peas singer placed in the ARIA Singles Charts during 2007 with three of the others reaching the Year-End Top 100 – Glamorous at No.13, Fergalicious at No.38 and Clumsy at No.52.

No.2 GIRLFRIEND - Avril Lavigne. The Canadian chanteuse has been hitting the ARIA Singles charts since 2002 and she has had ten, Top 100 hits in that time including two number ones. This was her second, spending six weeks at the top in April & May, her other being Complicated which spent the same length of time at the top in 2002 (it was the No.8 Single of that year). Avril had two other singles in the charts during 2007 with one of them, When You're Gone landing at No.33 for the year. As the year ended, Girlfriend was in its 39th week in the Top 100 and had been accredited double platinum.

No.3 UMBRELLA - Rihanna Feat. Jay-Z. In 2006 Rihanna had three Singles in the end of year list, but the best of them was at No.13 (SOS). This year she only has two, but she has her first Year-End Top 10 with this No.1 hit from the middle of 2007 (6 weeks at No.1 in June & July). By the end of 2007, the platinum single had spent 31 weeks in the Top 100 and was still holding down a Top 50 position. Internationally it was one of the biggest hits of the year, spending 10 weeks at No.1 in the UK and 7 weeks on top of the Billboard Hot 100 in the USA.

No.4 STRAIGHT LINES - Silverchair. Thirteen years after their stunning 1994 debut while barely in their teens, Daniel, Ben and Chris demonstrated in 2007 that they are still at the top of their game with Straight Lines becoming their third No.1 single, spending four weeks at the top in March and April. In addition to being the top ranked Australian release of 2007, the double platinum single was a triple ARIA Award winner, taking home shiny and pointy paperweights for Highest Selling Single, Best Video and the big one – Single Of The Year. As 2007 ended, the single had returned to the Top 40 in its 42nd week in the Top 100.

No.5 LIPS OF AN ANGEL - Hinder. The biggest hit of the first quarter of 2007, Lips... held the No.1 position for 7 weeks from the end of January through until mid March. By the end of 2007 it had amassed a total of 41 weeks in the Top 100. While not a hit in the UK, the song had reached No.3 in the US chart late in 2006. Hinder had a second single, Better Than Me in the charts later in the year, reaching No.11 in June and settling at No.74 for the year.

No.6 APOLOGIZE - Timbaland Feat. OneRepublic. Timbaland was the only act to have more than one No.1 Single during 2007. This was his second, riding at the top for the last six weeks of the year. His first, The Way I Are rates an honorable mention here, hitting the top for two weeks in October & November and rating as the year's No.11 hit. Apologize was one of the first digital only releases to hit the chart after the ARIA rule change in November, debuting at No.10 on digital sales alone and climbing to No.1 on its physical release three weeks later.

No.7 GRACE KELLY - Mika. The best ranked non-No.1 single of 2007, Mika Penniman's first hit peaked at No.2 for three weeks in April. The Lebanon born Englishman fared better in his adopted homeland where the song spent five weeks at No.1. The second half of 2007 saw Mika in the Top 10 two more times with Love Today (No.3 August) and Happy Endings (No.9 December) with both of them reaching the end of year list at numbers 23 and 69 respectively.

No.8 CANDYMAN - Christina Aguilera. A true veteran, Christina has appeared in every ARIA year-end Singles Top 100 since 1999 when her debut hit Genie In A Bottle became her first and until this year, only Top 10 entry, landing at No.10 for that year. Australia was one of the better territories for Candyman – it spent four weeks at No.2 here mid year compared to a No.17 peak in the UK and an even more modest No.25 in the US. The 17 weeks that it spent in the ARIA Top 100 puts it equal with Girlfriend by Avril Lavigne as the longest run of 2007.

No.9 THE SWEET ESCAPE - Gwen Stefani Feat. Akon. This single suffered the interesting fate of peaking at No.2 in Australia (for 6 weeks from February through April) and the same in both the US and UK charts. It is the best of three singles in the year-end list for Gwen and the first time she has appeared in a year-end Top 10 as a solo artist (although her band No Doubt had the No.8 Single of 1997 with Don't Speak). Her partner on this release, Akon appears on four titles in the Top 100 of 2007 with two of the others also being collaborations (Smack That with Eminem at No.34 and I Wanna Love You with Snoop Dogg at No.43).

No.10 BEAUTIFUL GIRLS - Sean Kingston. When Sean hit No.1 with this song on the ARIA Singles Chart in September he was just 17 years & 7 months old. He was one of two teenagers to reach the top during 2007, the other being Rihanna (who was 19 when she hit the top). Sean's debut Single, Beautiful Girls was a hit around the World – it spent five weeks at No.1 here and four weeks on top of both the USA and UK charts.

ALBUMS. Maybe it's a sign of our ageing population, but for the second year in a row the top selling album is by a male artist whose appeal is strongest with a more mature music audience. Last year it was Back To Bedlam by James Blunt (which is at No.78 for 2007 after two years in the Top 10) and this year Michael Buble assumes the mantle with his quadruple platinum album Call Me Irresponsible. It was one of 25 albums that reached No.1 during 2007. For the statistically minded among you, there were a total of 519 albums in the Top 100 during 2007 (up from 493 in 2006) with 329 of them reaching the Top 50 and 106 spending time in the Top 10. There were four albums which remained in the Top 100 for the whole of the year, two of which spent the whole of the year within the Top 50 – Future Sex/Love Sounds by Justin Timberlake (No.3 for the year) and Sneaky Sound System's eponymous debut album (which came in at No.15 for 2007). Nineteen of the Top 100 of 2006 carried over into this year's list with The Very Best Of Fleetwood Mac rating a special mention with this being its fifth year in a row in the Top 100 (at No.67). Seven acts appeared in the Top 100 twice, four of which were locals – David Campbell (at 33 and 48), Crowded House (at 45 and 97), Human Nature (at 30 and 60) and Damien Leith (at 39 and 44). In all 37 of the Top 100 were by local artists up from last year's record of 33 albums.

No.1 CALL ME IRRESPONSIBLE - Michael Buble. Not only was this the No.1 of the 2007, but it was most likely the top "gift" album of the year as well. In May enough Mums received the album on their "special" day to see it spend the first two of its five weeks at No.1 and it was still in the Top 5 in early September when no doubt a bunch of Dads enjoyed the same experience. Then, to cap off its year, it returned to the Top 10 during the final three weeks of the year when no doubt a whole lot more people found their copy under the Xmas tree...This is Michael's third album to reach an ARIA year-end Top 10. Michael Buble was the No.8 album of 2004 and It's Time was No.3 in 2005.

No.2 I'M NOT DEAD - P!nk. This album has achieved something that has not happened before in the 24 years of ARIA Charts – placing in the top three in consecutive years having also been the second best seller of 2006. The only No.1 of 2006 to return to the top in 2007 (Damien Leith's carried over), I'm Not Dead first reached No.1 for a week in October 2006 and returned for another week in June 2007 – 34 weeks later! During 2006 & 2007 the album spent a total of 68 weeks in the Top 10, second only to the 78 weeks of Shania Twain's million seller Come On Over in recent times. Included in its total was a run of 62 consecutive weeks which eclipsed (by one) the longest continuous streak of Come On Over in 1999/2000.

No.3 FUTURE SEX / LOVE SOUNDS - Justin Timberlake. This is the only title among the year's Top 10 that did not reach No.1 during 2007. In fact, after debuting at No.1 in September 2006 (and becoming the No.34 album of 2006), the best that it could manage in 2007 was a couple of weeks at No.4 in March and April. However it was one of the most consistent sellers throughout the whole of 2007, starting the year at No.16, ending it at No.5 and never dropping below No.32 (August) – the only album to stay in the Top 40 all year.

No.4 ON A CLEAR NIGHT - Missy Higgins. Two years ago Missy sat on top of this list when her debut album The Sound Of White was the No.1 album of 2005. Although not quite reaching the same heights second time around, this album gives her the distinction of having the top selling local release of the year. This album spent a week at No.1 on debut in early May, spending 8 weeks in the Top 10 and slaying in the Top 40 for the rest of the year.

No.5 THE DUTCHESS - Fergie. As a member of the Black Eyed Peas, Fergie has been in our end of year Top 10s twice before – Elephunk was the No.9 album of 2004 while its follow-up Monkey Business was the No.5 album of 2005. Her debut solo album, The Dutchess was one of the four albums to ride the chart for the whole of 2007 having made its first appearance (at No.13) in September 2006. As 2007 began, the album was outside of the Top 60 and it dropped as low as No.86 in mid February before beginning a steady ascent that took it to the top of the chart for four straight weeks in July and August.

No.6 DREAM DAYS AT THE HOTEL EXISTENCE - Powderfinger. Although this album received three nominations at the 2007 ARIAs, the Brisbane band were unable to add to their bounty of fourteen previous ARIA Awards. Nevertheless, the album was a big success in 2007, hitting No.1 on debut in June and spending half of the year's remaining 30 weeks in the Top 10. This is the third Powderfinger album to feature in a year-end Top 10, the other two being Odissey No.5 which was the No.2 album of 2000 and Vulture Street which made it to No.4 of 2003.

No.7 GRAND NATIONAL - The John Butler Trio. This is the second time that John and his trio have reached the lofty heights of a year-end Top 10 with the other occasion being in 2004 when Sunrise Over Sea held down the No.5 rank for that year. Grand National entered the chart at No.1 in April, spending the remainder of the year in the Top 30. It received a boost after winning two ARIA Awards (Best Independent and Best Blues & Roots) that sent it back into the Top 10 for a couple of weeks in early November.

No.8 LONG ROAD OUT OF EDEN - Eagles. The youngest of the albums to reach the Top 10 of 2007, by year-end this album was only 9 weeks old with all of those weeks spent in the Top 2. Six of those nine weeks were spent at No.1, making it the longest running chart topper of the year. The Eagles waited a long time for their third Australian No.1 album with their first two, Hotel California and The Long Run coming in 1977 and 1979 respectively. The Californian group's last really big chart album was The Very Best Of which was the No.5 album of 1994 and also featured in the Top 100s of 1995, 1996 and 2001.

No.9 YOUNG MODERN - Silverchair. Like its lead single Straight Lines, this album won ARIA Awards in three of the five categories for which it was nominated – Best Rock, Best Group and Album Of The Year. When this album hit No.1 (for 4 weeks) in April Silverchair became the first Australian group to have had five Australian No.1 albums. The band's other No.1s have been Frogstomp (1995 – their only other year-end Top 10 – No.7 of that year), Freak Show (1997), Neon Ballroom (1999) and Diorama (2002).

No.10 TIMBALAND PRESENTS: SHOCK VALUE - Timbaland. After a false start in Autumn (when this album spent 9 weeks on the chart without getting any higher than No.28), two No.1 singles dragged Shock Value back into the chart in August, with it building steadily until it hit the No.1 spot on the last week of 2007. The first chart album for Timbaland (aka Timothy Mosley), it has also been a major hit during 2007 overseas, hitting No.5 in the US in April and then No.2 in the UK in July.
