SINGLES. Black Eyed Peas are proving to be an unstoppable force as they top both the singles and albums chart this week. Boom Boom Pow racks up its fifth consecutive week at No.1. Lurking just outside the top 10 is Lady GaGa's Paparazzi, which has raced up thirteen spots to No.14. This week's No.1 ARIA Club Chart topper – Bonkers by Dizzee Rascal and Armand Van Helden slides into No.21 from No.28. Right behind them at No.22 is Flo Rida with Sugar, which is up nine places. Finally, P!nk who is currently in the country touring rocks back into the top 40 at No.33 with her former No.1 single – So What, which is up thirteen places.

No.8 I GOTTA FEELING – Black Eyed Peas. This is the third single to be featured on the ARIA Singles Chart, that has been taken from this week's No.1 album – The E.N.D. The Black Eyed Peas also hold the top spot on the singles chart, with Boom Boom Pow, currently spending its fifth consecutive week at No.1. I Gotta Feeling samples David Guetta's Love Is Gone and follows Imma Be, which peaked at No.74 earlier this month. The triple time Grammy Award winners will be supporting U2 on the final dates of their American tour.

No.41 SWEET DREAMS – Beyonce. Texan born, Beyonce Knowles is no stranger to these charts! The multi-talented performer has graced this chart since the early 90s, when she was part of Destiny's Child. Since then Beyonce has achieved multi-accreditations on a number of her releases and not to mention, has been nominated for not one, but two Golden Globe Awards for her role in Dreamgirls. Sweet Dreams is the fifth single from the I Am... Sasha Fierce (No.8 Nov. '08) album. Previous releases are If I Were A Boy (No.3 Nov. '08), Single Ladies (Put A Ring On It) (No.5 Jan. '09), Halo (No.3 Mar. '09) and Diva (No.40 Apr. '09).

No.66 BATTLEFIELD – Jordin Sparks. Jordin Sparks was crowned the sixth American Idol winner in 2007 and since then the singer/songwriter, model and fashion designer has had three Top 20 hits on the ARIA Singles Chart. Sparks made her debut with Tattoo (No.5 Mar. '08) and followed it up with a duet featuring Chris Brown that topped the charts. No Air spent four weeks at No.1 from June in 2008 and One Step At A Time, which peaked at No.12 in October that year. The latest single, Battlefield was co-written by OneRepublic's frontman Ryan Tedder and is the first to be lifted from Sparks' upcoming album, also titled Battlefield.

No.95 PARANOID – Jonas Brothers. Tween heartthrobs – Nick, Joe and Kevin Jonas are sixteen, nineteen and twenty-one respectively and have the world at their feet. The trio made their silver screen debut in the movie Camp Rock, they have also had their own 3D Concert Movie release and have a had string of single and album releases in their so far short career. Paranoid is the Jonas' eighth top 100 single and previous hits include When You Look Me In The Eyes (No.46 Aug. '08), S.O.S. (No.47 Apr. '08) and Burnin' Up (No.31 Oct. '08).

ALBUMS. Following from last weeks record of having three albums in the top 20, P!nk has decided to go one step better, and has four albums in the top 20! Funhouse has remained at No.3 again, I'm Not Dead is at No.10, M!ssundaztood is at No.18 and scraping in at No.20 is Try This. Carrying on from last week, this is a first for this century. Other artists to achieve this include Guns 'N' Roses in the 90's and Abba in the 70's. However, further down the charts, we see that P!nk actually has seven albums in the top 100; Can't Take Me Home is at No.28, M!ssundaztood / Can't Take Me Home is at No.40 and Try This / P!nk: Live In Europe is at No.64. Other artists to achieve this include Elvis Presley, Robbie Williams and Metallica.

No.1 THE E.N.D. – Black Eyed Peas. The acronym in the title of this album doesn't refer to the end of the Black Eyed Peas, but instead stands for The Energy Never Dies. This title actually alludes to fact that the group wants the tracks on this album to constantly be re-mixed by DJs, and actually think of this album as a 'template' for more work. This gives the BEP their third No.1 album, and their second to debut at No.1. Monkey Business also debuted at No.1 in June 2005. Other albums include Behind The Front, Bridging The Gaps (No.37 Feb. '01) and Elephunk (No.1 Aug. '04).

No.2 SOUND AWAKE – Karnivool. Hailing from Perth, Karnivool have made their debut to the ARIA Albums chart settling for nothing less than the top! Though it's been four years since their debut album, Themata. The boys have kept themselves busy touring Australia and America playing at festivals and with bands including Cog, Ankla and Skindred. Karnivool is made up of Ian Kenny (vocals), Andrew "Drew" Goddard (guitar), Mark Hosking (guitar), Jon Stockman (bass) and Steve Judd (drums).

No.8 BATTLE FOR THE SUN – Placebo. Music critics are saying that Placebo's latest album Battle For The Sun brings a real change to the normal sound that Placebo are known for. The boys attribute this to a few different reasons. This was the first time they recorded outside Europe, it was recorded in Toronto, Canada and they believe that having the space between them, their families and their management gave space for more creativity. They've also changed their line-up, with the addition of a new drummer Steve Forrest. Lastly, they enlisted producer David Bottrill who has previously worked with Silverchair, Tool and Muse. Previous albums of Placebo to chart include Without You I'm Nothing (No.14 May '99), Black Market Music (No.7 Oct. '00), Sleeping With Ghosts (No.11 Mar. '03) and Meds (No.4 Mar. '06).

No.11 WEST RYDER PAUPER LUNATIC ASYLUM – Kasabian. West Ryder Pauper Lunatic Asylum was the name of a real asylum in West Yorkshire, UK. Following on with this theme, each track is meant to be about a fictional inmate within the asylum. Fans who also like computer games will be pleased to know that Kasabian have provided a Kasabian asylum game to play on their web-site. This album has debuted at No.1 on the UK Albums Chart and has given them their highest Australian chart peak. Previous albums include Kasabian and Empire (No.67 Feb. '07).

No.31 NEW AGAIN – Taking Back Sunday. Taking Back Sunday is made up of Adam Lazzara (vocals), Matt Fazzi (guitar), Eddie Reyes (guitar), Mark O'Connell (drums) and Matt Rubano (bass) who are from Long Island, New York. The band has spent a great deal of time touring with Linkin Park, Jimmy Eat World and My Chemical Romance. They then decided to take a big break between albums to recharge the batteries before heading into the studio to record New Again. Their debut album to the ARIA Albums Chart was Louder Now which peaked at No.17 in May 2006.

No.32 LOVE & WAR – Daniel Merriweather. Daniel Merriweather seems to be the next Aussie expat who's shooting up charts overseas. Love & War has hit No.2 and No.10 on the UK and European Albums charts respectively. Merriweather grew up in the suburbs of east Melbourne and as a teenager found himself running around with the wrong crowd. After a period of time and a few close shaves with the law, he decided to straighten himself out and pursue A career in music. Blessed with a musical ear, Merriweather always loved singing and taught himself to play the violin. Recent collaborations with super-producer Mark Ronson have really pushed him into the spotlight and he's now signed with Ronson's label.

No.35 HOMBRE LOBO – Eels. Hombre Lobo is Spanish for werewolf. The album was written as a follow-on from a song that appeared on 2001's Souljacker (No.39 Oct.) album, Dog-Faced Boy, where the boy from this song has grown up to become a werewolf. The theme of the album is desire and so the album follows this werewolf character through different experiences of desire. As lead singer Mark Everett explains "I wanted to write a set of songs about desire. That dreadful, intense want that gets you into all sorts of situations that can change your life in big ways." Other albums of the Eels to chart include Beautiful Freak (No.71 Oct. '96), Daisies Of The Galaxy (No.38 Aug. '00), Shootenanny! (No.38 June '03) and Blinking Lights And Other Revelations (No.42 May '05).

No.39 SUNNY SIDE UP – Paolo Nutini. After recently touring the United States and the United Kingdom, the Scottish singer/songwriter from Paisly has hit the charts again with his second studio release album. Nutini, along with his band The Vipers have not only made the top 40 on the ARIA Albums charts have managed to rule the UK Charts (No.1) and the Irish Albums Chart (No.2). This release has been a little step up for the folk/rock band as their previous album These Streets Rather Ripped peaked at No.40 in June 2006.

No.52 THE ETERNAL – Sonic Youth. With a large back catalogue of successful albums, the charts are no stranger to American rock band Sonic Youth. The band, consisting of Thurston Moore (vocals and guitar), Kim Gordon (vocals, bass, guitar), Lee Ranaldo (vocals and guitar), Mark Ibold (bass) and Steve Shelley (drums) may be remembered for their other great rock albums such as Dirty (No.22 Aug. '92), Washing Machine (No.34 Oct. '95) and Rather Ripped (No.40 June '06). The Eternal is the band's sixteenth studio album and has appeared to make its greatest success on the Belgian Albums chart (No.29).

No.65 CLASSIC – Abba. The latest compilation album of Abba music includes classic songs like Thank-You For The Music, The Winner Takes It All, Fernando and Ring Ring. This joins a long line of Abba 'best-of' albums; Abba Gold (No.1 Dec. '92), More Abba Gold (No.38 July '08), Complete Gold Collection (No.6 June '01), The Definitive Collection (No.10 Sep. '02), 18 Hits (No.32 June. '06) and Number Ones (No.36 July '08).
